VISIT, CREATE, MAKE

With opportunities for individuals and community groups through to experienced professionals, we offer a range of studio spaces for hire, offering you a place to workshop an idea, learn a new technique or sharpen your skills.

Become a part of the creative community at Studio One Toi Tū by applying to be a part of our exhibition programme or hiring our spaces for your next event.

STUDIO SPACES

We have a range of studio options and are one of the few precincts in Auckland to offer access to 'messy' workshops suitable for ceramicists, sculptors and object makers. We also offer a number of open studio spaces that can be hired individually or collectively for making, meetings, workshops or temporary events.

We are located in the heart of central Auckland with free wi-fi, kitchen facilities and the possibility for 24-hour access. Contact us to find out how we can support you.

THE CELL BLOCK

The Cell Block studio spaces are private studios available for hire at a rate of $78 per week. It comes with 24-hour access and is hired on a monthly basis.

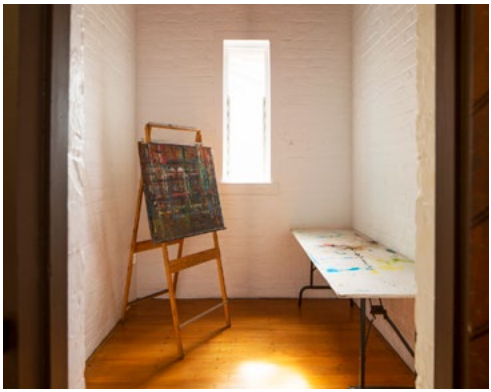
VILLA STUDIO

A shared studio space with access to the sculpture workshop is available for hire at a rate of $175 per week. It comes with 24-hour access and is hired on a monthly basis.

WORKSHOP HIRE

Studio One Toi Tū has two 'messy' workshops that can be hired at an hourly rate with access to our ceramic and printmaking equipment. If you have a project and need that extra space to make it happen, this is the option for you.

Contact Studio One Toi Tū to find out more information and check the availability of our studios, gallery and spaces for hire.



CALL FOR EXHIBITION PROPOSALS

Studio One Toi Tū welcomes innovative approaches to creative practice and offers opportunities for you to be a part of our diverse exhibition programme. Our four ground floor galleries can accommodate various visual art practices and are available for hire through an annual call for proposals.

CALL FOR TUTORS PROPOSALS

Studio One Toi Tū welcomes new and engaging course and workshop proposals from all creative disciplines, ranging from drawing, taxidermy, weaving and printmaking. Courses and workshops can be aimed at adults, youth or proposed as part of our school holiday programme.

Successful tutors are supported through resources available at Studio One Toi Tū, including the use of fit-for-purpose studios and workshop rooms.

CALL FOR RESIDENCY

Our Creative Studio Residency programme is open to applicants once a year. We select between two to five projects annually. Successful applicants will be supported by Studio One Toi Tū resources, networks and mentoring. The Residency concludes with an achievable exhibition or event. 2021 Residents included Esther Toclo, Kalee Jackson and Ashleigh Taupaki.

LEIS IN REST

MANUHA'APAI VAEATANGITAU

Leitī rest and lounge. A tribute to the sometimes mundane lives of our Leitī sisters whose existence can often be preoccupied by doubt, worry and fear. We are due rest, reprieve and are deserving of an oasis, a safe space for reflection.

Manuha'apai Vaeatangitau (they/them/she) is an interdisciplinary artist, practicing across the mediums of illustration, poetry, performance and music. Of Tongan descent, their practice centres the recontextualising and reimagining of the Leiti experience and its expressions.

This work will be on display in our temporary pop-up space during the relocation. You can view the works in the foyer during our opening hours.

An exhibit by Fiona Clark celebrating the courage, strength, and tenacity of our lesbian sapphic communities over the 50 years since Gay Liberation. Fiona will present new photographic portraits, as well as photos from her archive depicting the complexities of our identities and shared cultural experience. This exhibit will embrace those complexities, and looks to champion a collective spirit and elevate lesbian sapphic voices back onto Karangahape Road for Auckland Pride, so often the backdrop of our collective reality.

The Charlotte Museum will support Fiona by including items from our collections that compliment the works on show. Through this collaboration our communities can engage with a creative expression of narratives that reflect who we are and the cultural experience in which we all play a part.

This Auckland Pride Festival MAP Project is showcasing the work of artist Huriana Kopeke-Te Aho on the central location at 1 Ponsonby Road as Studio One Toi Tū continues to provide a space for artists and art lovers during the seismic strengthening renovations.

Huriana Kopeke-Te Aho (Tūhoe, Ngāti Porou, Rongowhakaata, Te Āti Haunui-a-Pāpārangi, Ngāti Kahungunu, Ngāi Tahu, Fale'ula) is a self-taught artist and illustrator whose work is primarily influenced by their Māori whakapapa, takatāpui identity, and political beliefs. At the centre of their artistic practice is a deep and fierce aroha/alofa for their people, and they aim to create imagery that speaks to the political and social struggles of their communities.
